Elisa Maas is co-chair of the firm's Business Department. She advises clients on the strategic use of Delaware entities to achieve their business goals, providing counsel and legal opinions on matters involving Delaware limited partnerships, general partnerships, and limited liability companies. Praising her "extremely deep level of knowledge and experience" and "high-quality work product," clients report that Elisa is "extremely responsive" and "her advice is commercial and clear.... She is great" (Chambers USA).

Elisa regularly handles transactions involving some of the world's largest banking institutions, Fortune 500 companies, and billion-dollar private equity funds. Her practice includes advising clients on investment fund, joint venture, structured finance, preferred securities, and cross-border transactions.

Elisa also provides counsel with regard to formation, governance, operations, mergers and acquisitions, conversions, divisions, and dissolutions of Delaware partnerships and LLCs. She is a frequent speaker and panelist on issues concerning these Delaware entities.
