1 Section 1. Amend § 15-123, Chapter 15, Title 6 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike
2 through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

3 § 15-123. Irrevocable power of attorney or proxy.

4 For all purposes of the laws of the State of Delaware, a power of attorney or proxy with respect to ~~matters relating~~
5 ~~to the organization, internal affairs or termination of a partnership or granted by a person as a partner or a transferee of an~~
6 ~~economic interest or by a person seeking to become a partner or a transferee of an economic interest~~ a partnership granted
7 to any person shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to 8 support an irrevocable power or proxy. Such irrevocable power of attorney or proxy, unless otherwise provided therein,
9 shall not be affected by subsequent death, disability, incapacity, dissolution, termination of existence or bankruptcy of, or 10 any other event concerning, the principal. A power of attorney or proxy with respect to matters relating to the organization, 11 internal affairs or termination of a partnership or granted by a person as a partner or a transferee of an economic interest or 12 by a person seeking to become a partner or a transferee of an economic interest and, in either case, granted to the 13 partnership, a partner thereof, or any of their respective officers, directors, managers, members, partners, trustees,
14 employees or agents shall be deemed coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power or proxy.
15 The provisions of this section shall not be construed to limit the enforceability of a power of attorney or proxy that is part of 16 a partnership agreement.

17 Section 2. Amend § 15-202(f), Chapter 15, Title 6 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike
18 through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

19 (f) ~~Unless otherwise provided in a partnership agreement, a~~ partnership has the power and authority to grant,
20 hold or exercise a power of attorney, including an irrevocable power of attorney.

21 Section 3. Amend § 15-401(l), Chapter 15, Title 6 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike
22 through and insertions as shown by underline as follows:

23 (l) A partner has the power and authority to delegate to 1 or more other persons the partner's rights and powers to 24 manage and control the business and affairs of the partnership, including to delegate to agents, officers and employees of 25 the partner or the partnership, and to delegate by a management agreement or other agreement with, or otherwise to, other
26 persons. Such delegation by a partner shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable. Such delegation by a partner shall 27 not cause the partner to cease to be a partner of the partnership or cause the person to whom any such rights and powers
28 have been delegated to be a partner of the partnership.

29 Section 4. Amend § 15-401(m), Chapter 15, Title 6 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike

38 On any matter that is to be voted on, consented to or approved by partners, the partners may take such action without a
39 meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if consented to, in writing or by electronic transmission, by partners having 40 not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which 41 all partners entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. ~~Unless otherwise provided in a partnership agreement, i~~f a
42 person (whether or not then a partner) consenting as a partner to any matter provides that such consent will be effective at a
43 future time (including a time determined upon the happening of an event), then such person shall be deemed to have 44 consented as a partner at such future time so long as such person is then a partner. On any matter that is to be voted on by 45 partners, the partners may vote in person or by proxy, and such proxy may be granted in writing, by means of electronic

59 be amended, the partnership agreement may be amended with the approval of all the partners or as otherwise permitted by 60 law, including as permitted by § 15-902(g) of this title. ~~Unless otherwise provided in a partnership agreement, a~~A
61 supermajority amendment provision shall only apply to provisions of the partnership agreement that are expressly included
62 in the partnership agreement. As used in this section, "supermajority amendment provision" means any amendment
63 provision set forth in a partnership agreement requiring that an amendment to a provision of the partnership agreement be 64 adopted by no less than the vote or consent required to take action under such latter provision.

SYNOPSIS

This bill continues the practice of amending periodically the Delaware Revised Uniform Partnership Act (the "Act") to keep it current and to maintain its national preeminence. The following is a section-by-section review of the proposed amendments of the Act.

Section 1. This section amends § 15-123 of the Act to confirm that the provisions of that section relating to a power of attorney also apply to a proxy.

Sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8. These sections amend § 15-202(f), § 15-401(m), § 15-407(d), § 15-407(e), § 15-807(h) and § 15-902(b) to delete surplus language and do not change the effect of those sections as, pursuant to § 15-103 of the Act, a partnership agreement can otherwise provide with respect to those sections.

Section 3. This section amends § 15-401(l) of the Act to confirm that unless otherwise provided in a partnership agreement, a delegation of rights and powers is irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable.

Section 9. This section amends § 15-1207(a)(5) of the Act to confirm that in exchange for the fees described the Secretary of State may issue public records in the form of photocopies or electronic image copies and need not provide public records in any other form.

Section 10. This section amends the proposed amendments of the Act shall become effective August 1, 2015, except that the amendment to Section 15-1207(a)(5) shall be effective upon its enactment into law.
