576 under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware, the corporation shall file with the Secretary of State a
577 certificate of conversion executed in accordance with § 103 of this title, which certifies:

578 (7) If a plan of conversion is adopted in accordance with subsection (l) of this section, that all provisions of 579 the plan of conversion shall be approved in accordance with this section.

580 (g) In connection with a conversion of a domestic corporation to another entity pursuant to this section, shares of 581 ~~stock~~, stock of the corporation of this State which is to be converted may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property,
582 or shares of stock, rights or securities of, or interests in, the entity to which the corporation of this State is being converted

583 or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, shares of stock, rights or 584 securities of, or interests in, another domestic corporation or other entity or may be cancelled.

585 (l) In connection with a conversion under this section, the converting corporation may adopt a plan of conversion
586 that may state: (i) the terms and conditions of the conversions, (ii) that the document, instrument, agreement or other 587 writing, as the cause may be, governing the internal affairs of the entity to which the converting corporation is being 588 converted and the conduct of its business shall be as set forth in an attachment to the plan of conversion, (iii) the manner, if 589 any, of exchanging or converting shares of stock of the converting corporation which are to be exchanged for or converted
590 into cash, property, or shares of stock, rights or securities of, or interests in, the entity to which the corporation of this State
591 is being converted or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, cash, property, shares of stock, rights or securities of, or interests in,
592 another domestic corporation or other entity or cancelling such shares, in accordance with subsection (g) of this section, (iv)
593 any details or provisions as are deemed desirable, and (v) such other provisions or facts as shall be required to be set forth
594 in a plan of conversion by the laws applicable to the entity to which the corporation of this State is being converted. Any of 595 the terms of the plan of conversion may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such plan, provided that the 596 manner in which such facts shall operate upon the terms of the plan of conversion is clearly and expressly set forth in the 597 plan of conversion. The term "facts," as used in the preceding sentence, includes, but is not limited to, the occurrence of 598 any event, including determination or action by any person or body, including the entity to which the corporation of this 599 State is being converted or the converting corporation.

600 Section 12. Amend § 272, Title 8 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and
601 insertions as shown by underline as follows:

602 § 272. Mortgage or pledge of assets.

603 (a) The authorization or consent of stockholders to the mortgage or pledge of a corporation's property and assets
604 shall not be necessary, except to the extent that the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides.

605 (b) Without limiting the rights of a secured party under applicable law, no resolution by stockholders shall be
606 required by § 271(a) of this title for a sale, lease or exchange of property or assets if such property or assets are collateral
607 that secures a mortgage or are pledged to a secured party and either:

608 (1) The secured party exercises its rights under the law governing such mortgage or pledge or other applicable
609 law, whether under Article 9 of a Uniform Commercial Code, a real property law or other law, to effect such sale, lease
610 or exchange without the consent of the corporation; or

611 (2) In lieu of the secured party exercising such rights, the board of directors of the corporation authorizes an
612 alternative sale, lease or exchange of such property or assets, whether with the secured party or with another person,

613 that results in the reduction or elimination of the total liabilities or obligations secured by such property or assets,
614 provided that (i) the value of such property or assets is less than or equal to the total amount of such liabilities or 615 obligations being eliminated or reduced and (ii) such sale, lease or exchange is not prohibited by the law governing
616 such mortgage or pledge. The provision of consideration to the corporation or to its stockholders shall not create a
617 presumption that the value of such property or assets is greater than the total amount of such liabilities or obligations
618 being eliminated or reduced.

619 (c) A failure to satisfy the proviso in subsection (b)(2)(i) of this section shall not result in the invalidation of a sale,
620 lease or exchange if the transferee of the property or assets provided value therefor (which may include the reduction or 621 elimination of the total liabilities or obligations secured by such property or assets) and acted in good faith (as defined in § 622 1-201(b)(20) of Title 6). The preceding sentence shall not apply to a proceeding against the corporation and any other 623 necessary parties to enjoin such sale, lease or exchange before the consummation thereof and shall not eliminate any 624 liability for monetary damages for any claim, including a claim in the right of the corporation, based upon a violation of 625 fiduciary duty by a current or former director or officer or stockholder.

626 (d) A provision of the certificate of incorporation that requires the authorization or consent of stockholders for a
627 sale, lease or exchange of property or assets shall not apply to a transaction permitted by subsection (b) of this section
628 unless such provision expressly so requires; provided that this subsection (d) shall apply only to certificate of incorporation
629 provisions that first become effective on or after August 1, 2023.

630 Section 13. Amend § 390, Title 8 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and 631 insertions as shown by underline as follows:

632 § 390. Transfer, domestication or continuance of domestic corporations.

633 (b) The board of directors of the corporation which desires to transfer to or domesticate or continue in a foreign 634 jurisdiction shall adopt a resolution approving such transfer, domestication or continuance specifying the foreign 635 jurisdiction to which the corporation shall be transferred or in which the corporation shall be domesticated or continued
636 and, if applicable, that in connection with such transfer, domestication or continuance the corporation's existence as a
637 corporation of this State is to continue and recommending the approval of such transfer or domestication or continuance by 638 the stockholders of the corporation. If a plan of transfer, domestication or continuance is to be adopted in accordance with 639 subsection (j) of this section, such plan shall be approved together with the resolution approving the transfer, domestication
640 or continuance. Such resolution shall be submitted to the stockholders of the corporation at an annual or special meeting.
641 Due notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be given to each holder of stock, whether voting or
642 nonvoting, of the corporation at the address of the stockholder as it appears on the records of the corporation, at least 20

643 days prior to the date of the meeting. At the meeting, the resolution shall be considered and a vote taken for its adoption or 644 rejection. ~~If a majority of the~~ outstanding shares of stock of the corporation, whether voting or nonvoting, entitled to 645 vote thereon shall be voted for the adoption of the resolution, resolution (provided that, if the corporation is transferring,
646 domesticating or continuing as a partnership having 1 or more general partners, then, in addition to the foregoing approval,
647 authorization of the transfer, domestication or continuance shall require approval of each stockholder of the corporation 648 who will become a general partner of such partnership as a result of the transfer, domestication or continuance), the 649 corporation shall file with the Secretary of State a certificate of transfer if its existence as a corporation of this State is to 650 cease or a certificate of transfer and domestic continuance if its existence as a corporation of this State is to continue,
651 executed in accordance with § 103 of this title, which certifies:

652 (7) If a plan of transfer, domestication or continuance is adopted in accordance with subsection (j) of this 653 section, that all provisions of the plan of transfer, domestication or continuance shall be approved in accordance with 654 this section.

655 (j) In connection with a transfer, domestication or continuance under this section, the transferring, domesticating
656 or continuing corporation may adopt a plan of transfer, domestication or continuance, as applicable, that may state: (i) the 657 terms and conditions of the transfer, domestication or continuance, (ii) the mode of carrying the same into effect, (iii) that 658 the document, instrument, agreement or other writing, as the case may be, governing the internal affairs of the resulting
659 entity and the conduct of its business shall be as set forth in an attachment to the plan, (iv) the manner, if any, of 660 exchanging or converting shares of stock of the corporation of this State which are to be expected for or converted into 661 cash, property, or shares of stock, rights or securities of, or interests in, the resulting entity or, in addition to or in lieu 662 thereof, cash, property, shares of stock, rights or securities of, or interests in, another domestic corporation or other entity or 663 cancelling such shares, in accordance with subsection (g) of this section, (v) any details or provisions as are deemed 664 desirable, and (vi) such other provisions or facts as shall be required to be set forth in a plan of transfer, domestication or 665 continuance, as applicable, by the laws applicable to the resulting entity. Any of the terms of the plan of transfer,
666 domestication or continuance may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such plan, provided that the 667 manner in which such facts shall operate upon the terms of the plan is clearly and expressly set forth in the plan. The term
668 “facts,” as used in the preceding sentence, includes, but is not limited to, the occurrence of any event, including a 669 determination or action by any person or body, including the resulting entity or the transferring, domesticating or 670 continuing corporation.

671 (k) Any provision of the certificate of incorporation of a corporation incorporated before August 1, 2023, or any 672 provision in any voting trust agreement or other written agreement between or among any such corporation and 1 or more

673 of its stockholders in effect on or before August 1, 2023, that restricts, conditions or prohibits the consummation of a
674 merger or consolidation shall be deemed to apply to a transfer, domestication or continuance as if it were a merger or 675 consolidation unless the certificate of incorporation or such agreement expressly provides otherwise with respect to a
676 transfer, domestication or continuance or, if the certificate of incorporation or such agreement does not so expressly 677 provide, a conversion, in which case such express provision shall be deemed to apply to a transfer, domestication or 678 continuance as if it were a conversion.

679 Section 14. Sections 1 through 8, 11 and 12 shall be effective on August 1, 2023.

680 Section 15. Section 9 of this Act only applies to the following transactions:

681 (1) A merger, conversion, domestication, transfer, or continuance effected under §§ 253, 266, or 390 of Title 8
682 of the Delaware Code that is authorized or provided for pursuant to resolutions of the board of directors adopted on or 683 after August 1, 2023.

684 (2) A merger effected under § 267 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code that is authorized on or after August 1, 685 2023, in accordance with an entity's governing documents and the laws of the jurisdiction under which the entity is 686 formed or organized.

687 (3) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Section, any other merger or consolidation
688 consummated pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation entered into on or after August 1, 2023.

689 Section 16. Section 10 of this Act only applies to corporations that have converted under § 265 of Title 8 of the 690 Delaware Code and with respect to which a plan of conversion is entered into on or after August 1, 2023, or, if a plan of 691 conversion is not entered into in connection with the conversion, a corporation with respect to which the approvals required
692 by § 265(h) of Title 8 of the Delaware Code are obtained on or after August 1, 2023.

693 Section 17. Section 13 of this Act only applies to domestications, transfers, or continuances effected under § 390
694 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code that are authorized pursuant to resolutions of the board of directors adopted on or after 695 August 1, 2023.

SYNOPSIS

Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this Act amend §§ 152, 153, 157 and 160 of Title 8.

Amended §§ 152 and 153 clarify that treasury shares may be sold for less than par value. Amended § 153(c) clarifies the types of consideration that a corporation may receive for selling treasury shares, and references to "amounts" of minimum consideration have been deleted from §§ 152 and 157 to eliminate redundancy.

Amended § 157(b) clarifies that § 157(c) is the exclusive means to delegate to a person or body the authority to enter into transactions to issue rights or options. A reference in § 157(b) to permitting the exercise price of a right or option to be determined by formula has been deleted to eliminate redundancy because such formulas are permitted by § 157(d). Amended § 157(c) eliminates the requirement that the board of directors, or a board committee, fix a maximum number of rights or options that may be authorized for issuance by a person or body under a § 157(c) delegation. Amended § 157(c) also clarifies that the board, or a board committee, may fix two different time periods in a § 157(c) delegation: a period during which rights or options may be issued and a different time period during which shares may be issued upon exercise of the rights or options.

Amended § 160(b) clarifies that treasury shares resulting from a stock redemption or repurchase may be resold under § 153(c), unless the treasury shares are retired. Amended § 160(b) also clarifies that treasury shares may not be resold if the shares are required to be retired by a provision of the certificate of incorporation.

Section 5 of this Act amends § 204 of Title 8 to make the following technical changes:

(1) The amendments to § 204(c)(2), which currently dispenses with the need for a vote of stockholders in circumstances where no valid stock is outstanding and entitled to vote, clarifies that the determination as to whether any shares of valid stock are outstanding and entitled to vote must be made at the time the board adopts the resolutions approving the defective corporate act.

(2) The amendment to § 204(d) similarly applies the time of the board's adoption of the resolutions ratifying the defective corporate act as the time for determining which shares constitute valid stock and which shares constitute putative stock entitled to vote on the adoption of the ratification of a defective corporate act requiring a vote of the holders of valid stock.

(3) The amendments to § 204(e) dispense with the need for filing a certificate of validation in circumstances where the underlying defective corporate act required the filing of a certificate under another section of the Delaware General Corporation Law and such a certificate has been filed and requires no change to give effect to the defective corporate act.

(4) The amendments to § 204(e) also simplify the required contents of a certificate of validation, including eliminating the requirement that certificates of validation describe the underlying defective corporate acts and the nature of the failure of authorization relating to those acts.

Section 6 of this Act amends § 228(e) of Title 8 to simplify the determination of the record date to be used for purposes of identifying the stockholders or members who are entitled to notice of action by consent by stockholders or members. There are three different possibilities for determining the record date for action by consent under § 213(b) of Title 8, which could differ from the record date for the notice required by § 228(e) of Title 8 before the changes made by this Section. The changes made by this Section provide that a notice of action by consent shall be provided to those persons (i) who were stockholders or members as of the record date for the action by consent, (ii) who would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the action had been taken at a meeting and the record date for the notice of the meeting was the record date for the action by consent, and (iii) who have not consented to the action by consent.

The changes to § 228(e) of Title 8 also provide that a notice that constitutes a notice of internet availability of proxy materials for purposes of the federal Securities Exchange Act will satisfy the notice requirements of § 228(e) for corporations entitled to use such notices under the relevant regulation promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act.

Section 7 of this Act amends § 242 of Title 8 to add a new subsection (d). Paragraph (d)(1) includes the language that had previously been in paragraph (b)(1) providing that no meeting or vote of stockholders is required to adopt an amendment to the certificate of incorporation that effects only changes described in paragraphs (a)(1) or (a)(7). Paragraph (d)(1) also provides that no meeting or vote of stockholders is required for an amendment to the certificate of incorporation that reclassifies by subdividing the issued shares of a class of stock into a greater number of issued shares, i.e., a forward stock split, provided that such class is the only class of such corporation's capital stock then outstanding (and is not divided into series). Paragraph (d)(1) also provides that no vote of stockholders is required, in connection with such subdivision, for such amendment to increase the authorized number of shares of such class, up to an amount proportionate to the subdivision.

Paragraph (d)(2) provides that a corporation listed on a national securities exchange can amend its certificate of incorporation to reclassify by combining the issued shares of a class into a lesser number of issued shares, i.e., a reverse stock split, without obtaining the vote or votes otherwise required by subsection (b) if (i) the shares are listed on a national exchange immediately before the amendment becomes effective and such corporation meets the listing requirement of such exchange relating to the minimum number of holders immediately after the amendment becomes effective, (ii) at a meeting of stockholders at which a vote is taken for and against the proposed amendment, the votes cast for the amendment exceed the votes cast against the amendment and (iii) if the amendment increases or decreases the number of shares of a class of stock that has not opted out of the class vote pursuant to the last sentence of paragraph (b)(2), the votes cast for the amendment by the holders of such class exceed the votes cast against the amendment by the holders of such class. Under the voting standard set forth in paragraph (d)(2)(B) and (C), abstentions have no effect on whether the required approval is obtained.

The addition of subsection (d) does not eliminate the stockholder vote required to change the par value of a class of stock, whether or not in connection with any subdivision or combination.

Notably, the "unless otherwise expressly required by the certificate of incorporation" lead-in to subsection (d) permits a corporation to "opt in" to the stockholder votes that otherwise would be required under subsection (b) in connection with any subdivision or combination of the issued shares or increase or decrease in the authorized number of shares contemplated by subsection (d). Any such provision in the certificate of incorporation must expressly state that the stockholder vote otherwise required under subsection (b) is required to adopt any amendment to the certificate of incorporation specified in subsection (d) or must expressly "opt out" of the provisions of subsection (d). A general recitation in the certificate of incorporation of the vote generally required under subsection (b) without a specific reference to the amendments specified in subsection (d) is not sufficient.

Section 242(a)(3) is also being amended to require that reclassifications by way of subdividing and combining, i.e., forward stock splits and reverse stock splits, must apply to outstanding shares and shares held in treasury, i.e., all “issued” shares. New subsection (d) also reflects this change.

Section 8 of this Act amends § 260 of Title 8 to confirm the authority of a corporation, following a merger, consolidation, conversion, or domestication, to issue bonds, other obligations, shares of its capital stock, and other securities, and to mortgage its franchise, rights, privileges, and property, in connection with such merger, consolidation, conversion, or domestication.

Section 9 of this Act amends § 262 of Title 8, in connection with the amendments to § 390 of Title 8 set forth in Section 13 of this Act, to provide appraisal rights to stockholders in connection with a transfer, domestication, or continuance of the corporation in a foreign jurisdiction, unless appraisal rights are denied under the “market out” exception set forth in amended § 262(b). Amended § 262 eliminates appraisal rights in connection with a merger, consolidation, conversion, or domestication of an entity that has converted to a Delaware corporation under § 265, if the merger, consolidation, conversion, or domestication is authorized under § 265, as amended by Section 10 of this Act. Conforming changes to the other subsections of § 262 provide that appraisal rights are available in a domestication in a similar manner as a merger, consolidation, or conversion. Amended §262(k) clarifies that an appraisal demand may be withdrawn more than 60 days after the effective date of the transaction resulting in appraisal rights if the withdrawal is approved by the corporation, but the amendment does not change the existing rule that appraisal rights cease if a petition for appraisal is not filed under §262(e).

Sections 10, 11 and 13 of this Act amend §§ 265, 266 and 390 of Title 8 to permit an other entity or corporation to adopt a plan of conversion or a plan of domestication setting forth the terms and conditions of the conversion or domestication, including the manner of exchanging or converting the equity interests of the other entity or corporation to be converted or domesticated and any other details or provisions deemed desirable. A plan of conversion, adopted under amended § 265, also may set forth corporate action to be taken by the converted corporation in connection with the conversion, each of which must be approved in accordance with the requirements of all applicable law before effectiveness of the conversion. Once so approved, any such corporate action that is within the power of a Delaware corporation under Chapter 1 of Title 8 set forth in the plan of conversion shall be deemed authorized, adopted, and approved, as applicable, by the converted corporation and its board of directors, stockholders, or members, as applicable, and does not require any further action of the board of directors, stockholders, or members of the converted corporation under Title 8. The amendments to §§ 265, 266, and 390 provide that the terms of a plan of conversion or plan of domestication may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of such plan if the manner in which such facts operate upon the terms of the plan is clearly and expressly set forth in such plan. The amendments further provide that a certificate of conversion, certificate of transfer or certificate of transfer and domestic continuance, adopted under §§ 266 or 390, and that a certificate of conversion, adopted under § 265, shall certify that, prior to the time such certificate becomes effective, the plan of conversion or plan of domestication, as applicable, shall be approved in accordance with §§ 266 or 390 or in accordance with all law applicable to the other entity.

Also, Section 13 of this act changes the requirement for stockholder approval of the transfer, domestication, or continuance of a corporation in a foreign jurisdiction, from all of the outstanding shares of stock of the corporation to a majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote on a transfer, domestication, or continuance. If the corporation is transferring, domesticating, or continuing as a partnership with one or more general partners, the transfer, domestication, or continuance also requires the approval of each stockholder that is to become a general partner of the partnership. The amendments require that a certificate of domestication to be filed with the Secretary of State must contain the agreement of the transferring, domesticating or continuing corporation to be served with process in the State of Delaware for any action for enforcement of any obligation of the resulting entity arising from the transfer, domestication, or continuance as well as in appraisal proceedings under § 262 of Title 8. The amendments also provide that, for any corporation incorporated before August 1, 2023, any provision contained in its certificate of incorporation or in a voting trust agreement or other written agreement between or among the corporation and one or more stockholders in effect on or before August 1, 2023 that restricts, conditions or prohibits consummation of a merger or consolidation is also deemed to apply to a transfer, domestication, or continuance, unless the certificate of incorporation or such agreement expressly provides otherwise with respect to a transfer, domestication, or continuance, or if the certificate of incorporation or such agreement does not so expressly provide, a conversion as contemplated by § 266(k) in which case such express provision shall be deemed to apply to a transfer, domestication or continuance as if it were a conversion.

Section 12 of this Act amends § 272 of Title 8. New § 272(b) adds a safe harbor for selling, leasing or exchanging collateral assets that secure a mortgage or pledge without obtaining stockholder approval under § 271 of Title 8. Amended § 272(b)(1) clarifies this approval is not required if the secured party can sell the collateral without the corporation’s consent (including without the consent of its board of directors and stockholders) under the law governing the mortgage or pledge or other applicable law. If a secured party is entitled to sell the collateral in such circumstances, but wishes not to, § 272(b)(2) permits the secured party and the board of directors to agree to an alternative transaction (e.g., a strict foreclosure or sale to a third party), without obtaining § 271 stockholder approval, if the value of the assets is less than or equal to the amount of the liability or obligation being reduced or eliminated as a result of the transaction. A specific type of asset valuation is not prescribed, and a transaction would not fail the asset value test solely because consideration is paid to the corporation or its stockholders. For example, consideration might be paid to those parties in the ordinary course of similar transactions or paid as “nuisance value” to avoid claims in litigation. Amended § 272(b) is not intended to affect a secured party’s obligation to comply with article 9 of a uniform commercial code, real property law or other applicable law.

Amended § 272 does not create a general insolvency exception to § 271 of the type that the Supreme Court of the State of Delaware declined to adopt in Stream TV Networks, Inc. v. SeeCubic, Inc., 279 A.3d 323 (Del. 2022). The amendments to § 272 establish safe harbors for when stockholder approval is not required by § 271. Amended § 272 does not preclude further case law developments on which transactions constitute a “sale, lease or exchange” of assets for purposes of § 271, nor is amended § 272 intended to preclude further development of the quantitative and qualitative analyses used by the Delaware courts to interpret § 271.

New § 272(c) provides that, after a transaction is completed, it cannot be invalidated for failure to satisfy the asset value test if the transferee of the assets provided value and acted in good faith (as defined in § 1-201(b)(20) of Title 6). However, a transaction may be enjoined before consummation, and § 272(c) does not preclude monetary damages for a claim based on a violation of fiduciary duty by a director, officer or stockholder. New § 272(c) does not change the fiduciary duties of directors or officers (or, as applicable, stockholders) in connection with a sale, lease or exchange, or the level of judicial scrutiny that will apply to the decision to enter into a sale, lease or exchange, each of which will be determined based on the common law of fiduciary duty, including the duty of loyalty. New § 272(c) does not eliminate defenses otherwise available, including based on § 141(e) of Title 8 or a § 102(b)(7) of Title 8 provision. The adoption of § 272(c) is not intended to preclude application of a similar remedies scheme for a § 271 violation.

New § 272(d) provides that a certificate of incorporation provision that requires stockholder authorization of a sale, lease or exchange of assets does not apply to a sale, lease or exchange permitted by § 272(b) unless the certificate of incorporation expressly so provides. New § 272(d) applies only to certificate of incorporation provisions that first become effective after August 1, 2023.

The amendments to § 272 apply to nonstock corporations through the translator provisions of § 114.

Section 14 of this act provides that the effective date of Sections 1 through 8, 11 and 12 is August 1, 2023.

Section 15 of this act provides that Section 9 only applies to mergers, consolidations, conversions, domestications, transfers, and continuances adopted or entered into on or after August 1, 2023, as determined under Section 15.

Section 16 of this act provides that Section 10 only applies to corporations with respect to which a plan of conversion is entered into on or after August 1, 2023, or, if a plan of conversion is not entered into in connection with the conversion, any such corporations with respect to which the approvals required by § 265(h), as amended by this Act, are obtained on or after August 1, 2023.

Section 17 of this act provides that Section 13 is effective only with respect to corporations domesticating, transferring, or continuing pursuant to resolutions of the board of directors approving the action that are adopted on or after August 1, 2023.

This Act requires a greater than majority vote for passage because § 1 of Article IX of the Delaware Constitution requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the General Assembly to amend the general corporation law.
